

Help with Food in NYC: What You Need to Know

- SNAP benefits will not be paid on time for November 2025.
- If you have SNAP left on your EBT card from prior months, you can spend it in November.
 - Everyone can find food pantries/hot meals near them at www.foodbanknyc.org
- City Harvest's mobile markets provide free produce boxes at select locations in each borough (check website for dates/times): <https://www.cityharvest.org/mobile-markets/>
- You can download the Plentiful app to find food pantries near you and reserve a time to pick up food.
 - Other resources are available for special populations.

People Living with HIV

- Ryan White Part A Food and Nutrition Services: pantries, pantry bags, hot meals, and food vouchers
- Ryan White Part B Food Bank/Home Delivered Meal Providers: call your TFC worker for a list of providers in your county

People Living with Cancer

- Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center offers a food pantry for cancer patients in active treatment.
Call 646-888-8046

Families with Young Children

- WIC is currently still available
- You can still submit WIC applications
- Find a local WIC office here to apply: https://www.health.ny.gov/prevention/nutrition/wic/local_agencies.htm

